DETAILED ACTION

Interview Summary

1. The examiner received an inquiry from David Hall about the previously submitted advisory action. After investigating the case the examiner determined the application was in condition for allowance, and the previous advisory action was issued in error.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Claims 8, 36, and 64 are allowable over the prior art because

Lineham US 5,495,533 in view of Ote US 6,023,506 does not teach wherein the step of generating a personal key based on the obtained passphrase comprises the step of hashing the user identification, the passphrase and the file identification to provide the personal key.

Nguyen US 5,638,448 teaches combining identification and passphrases to create a key, (Col 4 lines 12-16). However Nguyen fails to teach including file identification in the generation of the personal key.

Claims 9, 10, 37, 38, 65, and 66 are allowed due to their dependence on the allowed independent claims.
